

In re: Angel Breto,
Case No. 06-12232-BKC-AJC

Debtor's driver's license was suspended pre-petition. Debtor filed a motion requesting the Court direct the reinstatement of his license. The Court found that the statute authorizing the suspension of Debtor's driver's license is a collection remedy statute for motor vehicle accident judgment creditors and is not directed at the State's health and safety concerns. Accordingly, the Court found the State of Florida violated the stay under 11 U.S.C. §362 by failing to reinstate the Debtor's driver's license and ordered the State to reinstate same.
