

In re Hilliard Development Corp., Debtor
Case No. 90-27588-BKC-AJC
2004 WL 1347049 (Bankr. S.D.Fla. 2004).

The Court approved a collective bargaining agreement between the Debtor and its labor union nunc pro tunc. The agreement was entered into post-petition, but Court approval was not obtained at the time. The Court found that the collective bargaining agreement did not prejudice the interests of any party to the case, and being in the best interests of the creditors, approved it retroactively to its effective date.
