

Dunn v. Dezer
(In re Cimax USA, LLC)
09-02467-BKC-LMI

The Plaintiff could not use the “relation back” doctrine under Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 15 to modify a complaint because the Plaintiff did not include a preference count in the original complaint and pled completely new and distinct facts as the basis for the preference claim added in the amended complaint.