

In re FELIX E. FORESTIERI and ALEIDA FORESTIERI, Debtors.
CASE NO. 99-11417-BKC-RAM

Motion to Reduce Prejudice Period was denied based on Debtors' continuing pattern of delinquency in payments followed by amended plans requiring increased monthly payments. In addition to the foregoing history, which amply demonstrated a lack of feasibility by Debtors to remain current under their Chapter 13 plans, the Court found that emergency relief was inappropriate due to the delay in filing the Emergency Motion.
