

In re Mark J. BINKO and Melany L. BINKO, Debtors.

No. 00-34168-BKC-SHF

(Cite as: 258 B.R. 515)

Trustee objected to homestead exemption claimed by Chapter 7 debtors in proceeds from sale of their residence. The proceeds from the sale of debtors' homestead, which debtors had placed in separate account and which they intended to invest in purchasing another residence, did not lose exempt status merely because the debtors, while looking for another residence, had used portion of proceeds to pay for basic living expenses.