In re:

General Order 2017-02

Extension of Deadlines

As a result of the passage of Hurricane Irma through South Florida Thursday, September 7 through Monday, September 11, 2017, resulting in wide-spread power and Internet outages in many areas and a closure of the Federal Courthouses in Miami-Dade, Broward and Palm Beach Counties, it is ORDERED that, ALL periods set by all statutes of limitations as well as other statutory deadlines (e.g., relating to the automatic stay, lease assumptions, exclusivity periods, etc.) applicable to cases and proceedings filed, or to be filed in this court, are hereby extended thirty days from today's date unless the court sets an earlier date by separate order.

ORDERED in the Southern District of Florida on September 12, 2017.
