

The 2018 Chief Judge's Pro Bono Bankruptcy Award

The Chief Judge's Pro Bono Bankruptcy Award is an annual award created to recognize and honor one outstanding bankruptcy practitioner each year who has contributed to making access to justice a reality for those in need by going above and beyond handling pro bono bankruptcy cases for the indigent in the Southern District of Florida.

REQUIREMENTS: One Award Recipient will be selected annually. In order to be considered for this award, the candidate must have excelled in providing bankruptcy pro bono legal services in the Southern District of Florida as follows:

1. The recipient must have made significant accomplishments in improving access to justice in the insolvency and bankruptcy field.
2. The recipient must be admitted to the Southern District of Florida and be a member of The Florida Bar for a minimum of five years.
3. The recipient must have provided distinguished pro bono service, either in a single outstanding case or achievement, or must have provided distinguished pro bono services consistently over a considerable period of time for multiple activities or cases. The fact that a single achievement may have occurred before the year of recognition is not material.

5. This award is limited to private attorneys and or members of law firms who are not compensated for their pro bono work and excludes members of the judiciary, legal services paid staff attorneys, and the academic community.
