

Rule 9015-1. Pleading and Responding to Jury Trial Demand.

(A) Title of Pleading. If the complaint, answer or other pleading includes a demand for a jury trial, the words “Demand for Jury Trial” shall be included in the title of the pleading.

(B) Deadline for Demand. Any party may demand a trial by jury of any issue triable of right by a jury by serving upon the other parties a demand in writing at any time after the commencement of the action and not later than 10 days after the service of the last pleading directed to such issue. Such demand may be included in a pleading of the party.

(C) Deadline for Response. If a jury demand contains consent to jury trial by a bankruptcy judge, all other parties shall file a response within 10 days containing a statement consenting or not consenting to jury trial by a bankruptcy judge.

(D) Specification of Issues. In the demand a party may specify the issues which the party wishes so tried; otherwise the party shall be deemed to have demanded trial by jury for all the issues so triable. If the party has demanded trial by jury for only some of the issues, any other party within 10 days after service of the demand or such shorter time as the court may order, may serve a demand for trial by jury of any other or all of the issues of fact in the action.

(E) Waiver. The failure of a party to serve a demand as required by this rule and to file it constitutes a waiver by the party of trial by jury. A demand for trial by jury may not be withdrawn without the consent of the parties.
