Congratulations! You have successfully activated your electronic noticing account and will now receive all notices sent by the U.S. Bankruptcy Court via email. Your account number is 38017.

This service will continue as long as your name and mailing address in the bankruptcy court records match the records used to activate electronic noticing and as long as there are no email failure replies ("bounce back" messages) indicating your email account may not be working. If email noticing stops, you will receive paper bankruptcy notices by regular mail.

This is an automatically-generated email. Please do not reply to this email. If you have any questions regarding electronic noticing, or if you would like to deactivate electronic noticing, please contact the court.

Sincerely,
The Bankruptcy Noticing Center

To ildebn@yahoo.com,

Your electronic bankruptcy noticing account (37765) has been deactivated. This was due to either a failure to be able to deliver a previous bankruptcy notice, you have filed a written request with the court to deactivate your account, or the court has determined that you are ineligible to continue to receive notices electronically.

You will no longer receive notices sent by the court in an email. They will be sent by USPS mail.

This is an automatically-generated email. Please do not reply to this email. If you have any questions regarding electronic noticing, please contact the court.

Sincerely,
The Bankruptcy Noticing Center
