In Re:

General Order 2020-01

Assignment of New Cases and Adversary Proceedings, and Reassignment of Pending Cases to Honorable Paul G. Hyman, Jr., Pending Appointment of New Bankruptcy Judge

To implement the assignment of cases and adversary proceedings to Bankruptcy Judge Paul G. Hyman, Jr. – Broward division, it is

ORDERED as follows:

1. Beginning February 8, 2020, newly filed cases and adversary proceedings shall be assigned to Judge Paul G. Hyman, Jr. as provided under Local Rule 1073-1(B)(1). Specifically, Judge Hyman and Judge Grossman will each receive fifty percent of the Broward division cases filed under each chapter of the Bankruptcy Code; and
2. All pending and reopened cases and any related adversary proceedings shall be reassigned from retired bankruptcy Judge John K. Olson to Judge Paul G. Hyman, Jr. The Clerk of Court is directed to effect the transfer of these cases by entering an electronic transfer entry on the court docket in every affected case and adversary proceeding to reflect the current judge assignment; and
3. Hearings, including those hearings scheduled in cases and adversary proceedings reassigned under this order to Judge Hyman, will proceed on the date and time as scheduled. These hearings will be conducted by Judge Hyman; and
4. Nothing in this order shall preclude future transfer of cases or adversary proceedings to Judge Hyman, or if later deemed appropriate, reassignment of cases or adversary proceedings to another judge of this court; and
5. Reassignment of cases and adversary proceedings pursuant to this Order shall be effective on February 8, 2020.

ORDERED in the Southern District of Florida, this 6th day February 2020.

Laurel M. Isicoff, Chief Judge
United States Bankruptcy Court
