ORDER SETTING BRIEFING SCHEDULE ON MOTION TO DISMISS (ECF NO. XX)

THIS MATTER came before the Court upon the motion to dismiss (ECF No. ___) (the "Motion") filed by Party A ("Movant(s)"). The Court, being fully advised in the premises, hereby ORDERS that:

1. Party B (“Respondent(s)”) may file a responsive pleading (the “Response”) to the Motion on or before [Month] [XX], 20[XX]. [Calculate date, allowing at least one week for order processing. Insert a calendar date, not a reference to the number of days since date of entry of this Briefing Order.] If Respondent(s) elect(s) to file a Response, the title of the Response shall reference the ECF number of the Motion. The Response must not exceed ten (10) pages in length, including any accompanying memoranda of law. If Respondent(s) choose(s) to submit supplemental documentation, each document must be filed as an individual exhibit to the Response. Failure to timely file a Response may result in the Court granting the Motion.

2. Movant(s) may file a reply (the “Reply”) to the Response on or before [Month] [XX], 20[XX]. [Insert a calendar date.] If Movant(s) elect(s) to file a Reply, the Reply shall not exceed five (5) pages in length. If Movant(s) choose(s) to submit supplemental documentation, each document must be filed as an individual exhibit to the Reply.

3. The Response(s) and Reply(-ies) must provide pinpoint citations identifying (i) contested allegations by paragraph and (ii) describing the purported legal basis for dismissal (or lack thereof). Failure to provide the Court with clear, accurate, and precise citations may result in the Court striking the relevant factual or legal assertion(s).

4. The Response(s) and Reply(-ies) shall be formatted with 12-point font (preferably Times New Roman or Century Schoolbook) and double-spacing of paragraphs. Failure to adhere to page limitations may result in the Court striking the portion of the submission that exceeds the stated limitations.<sup>1</sup>
